Dear Family, I offer my deepest condolences for your loss. I'm sure that words could never ease the pain and heartache that you are suffering. Please be comforted by God's loving promise to be reunited together again in the future Paradise. God knows your pain and the many tears that you cry. (Acts 24:15) You're in my prayers. (Revelation 21:4, 5)

To my brother: you were always there to help me get through the rough times that I've been having. You were more than a friend you were my brother. I'm going to miss all the fun times we had together especially the times of you yelling at me for eating the peas right out of the field.

Dear friend, your life ended so short. I love you so much and will be deeply missed. Thank you so much for everything you did for me. When I was going through the lowest point in my life, you was there to comfort me and be by my side. I will cherish every moment that we shared. Rest in peace and some day we shall meet again.

To my "brother" Barry and family, Praying that our God will wrap his loving arms around you and allow you comfort in the sudden loss of Matthew. Matthew was a good, kind and loving son, your right arm. Like his dad, always smiling and willing to do anything for anybody anytime. I am so thankful that we recently saw you and Matthew. You a good dad and your love for your son will shine on! My heart aches for you, love you....Tony and Jane??
