Jack M. Bondi Sr.

SEP 16, 1941 - MAR 30, 2019

Jack M. Bondi Sr., aged 77 of Hopewell Twp., passed away on Saturday morning March 30, 2019 in Inspira Medical Center, Vineland where he had been a patient for the past few weeks. Born in Bridgeton, he was the son of the late Morris M. and Kathryn McGinnus Bondi, and the husband of the late Carol A. Bondi, who passed in January of this year. Jack and Carol had been long time residents until the closing of Owens Illinois when they moved to Syracuse, NY. They resided in NY for thirteen years until returning in 2001 taking residence in Millville. During the past three years, Jack had resided in the Cumberland Manor.

Jack worked at Owens Illinois as a mechanic. He was a proud veteran serving in the United States Army. He and his late wife were members of The Parish of The Holy Cross Immaculate Conception Church in Bridgeton and he was also a former member of the Knights of Columbus. Jack enjoyed rabbit and deer hunting, and he especially loved fishing and watching sports. He occasionally enjoyed a cold beer every now and then. Jack and Carol worked hard throughout life to provide the best education for their only son Jack Jr., and they were proud of his accomplishments as a doctor.

Surviving him is his son, Dr. Jack M. Bondi Jr. of Voorhees, his loving granddaughters, Lauren Bondi and Katelyn Bondi, brother in laws, Alfred "Moe" Mossbrooks and his wife Jill of Hopewell Twp., Robert "Bobby" Mossbrooks and wife Eileen of Millville, and James Crilley of Upper Deerfield Twp., mother in law, Millie Mossbrooks of Millville, his two special nephews, Max and Philip Mossbrooks, and several other nieces, nephews, and extended family and friends. Besides his parents and wife Carol, he was predeceased by a sister Mary Lynn Crilley, and his father in law Alfred Mossbrooks Jr..
