We are very, very sad to see Deandrea leave this earth, but we know that she is resting with her Lord and maker. Her earnest desire was that her loved ones, friends, and all she came in contact with would also enjoy a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. She fought a good fight, she kept the faith, she finished her course...and the Lord has taken her home to receive her crown! We will miss Deandrea. She was a faithful friend and prayer warrior.##imported-begin##Russhawn, Brian, and Caleb Aldridge##imported-end##

I met Deandrea while attending UW-Madison. She was a dear sister in Christ, and someone that I enjoyed going to lunch with and sharing laughs with. I remember her smile, her congenial spirit, and her loving attitude. I did not keep in touch with Deandrea after college - I'm really not sure why - but I never forgot the times we prayed together and encouraged one another throughout our years in school. What a blessing she was to me. I was so saddened to hear that she had been ill, but what a blessing to know that she is now at rest with the Lord Jesus Christ. May God bless and comfort her family - and may her life be a testimony for any one who knew her - especially those who do not know Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Christina Gay##imported-end##

I am reminded how precious life is - and how important it is to treat people respectfully and lovingly as Deandrea did. How touched I was by her life, and now by her death - that I myself will all the more fervently be prayerful and live out God's Will each day...pressing to live each day to the fullest. May God bless and comfort her family - and may her life be a testimony for all of us to have and strengthen our relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Christina Gay##imported-end##
