Dorothy Sammons

MAY 14, 1927 - FEB 5, 2008

Dorothy Sammons 80, of Bridgeton died early Tuesday morning February 5, 2008 in Thomas Jefferson University Hospital, Philadelphia. Her death was sudden and unexpected.

Born in Cheswold, Delaware she was the daughter of the late Oscar P. and Letisha "Lettie" Sammons. She was a resident of Bridgeton for many years and had previously lived in Millville. Dorothy had worked for many years in Nursing with the former Bridgeton Hospital and Bridgeton Nursing Center. She also previously worked at Cumberland Manor. She enjoyed crocheting and sewing and attended the Fairfield Adult Day Care Center. She also was a member of the Nanticoke Lenni Lenape Indians of Bridgeton. Surviving her to cherish her memory is her one daughter Letisha E. Streets Mosley of Millville, her four sons McClaren A. Streets of Bridgeton, William A. Streets of Vineland, Angel Davila and Juan Rosado both of Virginia, two sisters Eva Mosley of Dover, Delaware, and Thelma Pierce of Bridgeton, five grandchildren Heather Streets, Brandon Streets, Juan Rosado III, Thomas Miller, and Stephanie Miller. Besides her mother and father, she was predeceased by six brothers John Sammons, Vernon Sammons, Alfred Sammons, Charles Sammons, Alfred Pierce, Oscar Sammons Jr. and two sisters Grace Jones and Rebecca Sammons.
