I was honored and privileged to know Mrs. Palmer and her husband Mr. Willie T., her children Sam, Darlene, Willie, Shirley & Randy. Mrs. Palmer was very kind to me as she knew my family as well. I'm saddened that she fell asleep in death, but I am assured by God's word that there will be a resurrection for those who await to receive the loved ones back with open arms. Love to the Palmer Family I remember you fondly!

Grandma, we just want you to know that we love you and miss you so much. We could have never imagined a grandma as wonderful as you. We have been so blessed to have someone as caring and special in our life as you. I wanted you to stay here with us but that would have been very selfish of me. When you became ill, I knew deep down that with him, you'll want to be. You are now free. Free to visit, free to roam, free to laugh, and no longer moan. We love you grandma. Love Always, Melissa & Sanyyah Mack###imported-begin##Melissa & Sanyyah Mack###imported-end##

To the Palmer Family, Ms. Nel, and Margaret, I have already sat in the seats you must sit in today, shed tears, and said good-bye to my family members also. But as you go through these hours of bereavement remember the word of God declares; "Weeping endureth for a night, but joy will come in the morning." We are separated by many miles from each other, but memories are the treasures that keep us close in thought. May the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding keep you always in His care. ##imported-begin## Rev. Jeanette Hunter-Watty ##imported-end##
