To the family and friends of Cynthia. Cynthia will truly be missed. I met Cynthia in February as she was an excellent participant in my group for African-American women. She was a dynamic, kind, and spirited person. Each and every time that I saw Cynthia, she would say, "Don't Move Ms. Nina and nobody gets hurt!" I will miss and remember those words. May her memories keep your heart guarded in love, great thoughts, and peace. So Cynthia, now God says, "Don't move - and Cynthia doesn't hurt anymore." Sincerely, Ms. Nina

Cynthia Honesty-Scarborough-Temple Cynthia you will truly be missed. This song is for you. Two wings to fly away. Two wings to veil my face. Meet me Jesus, meet me master, meet me in the middle of the air. If these two wings should fail me I want you to meet me with another pair. Cynthia you have earned your wings. Rest in Peace. You little sis Flourine.##imported-begin## Flourine##imported-end##

Aunt Cynthia, you will be truly missed. Although I haven't seen you in a couple of years because I'm off in college I'm sure you are proud. I graduate May 8, 2010 auntie and I know you will be looking down on me smiling. Your other great nieces and nephews miss you as well. I will be there to celebrate your homegoing but this is not a good bye just simply a see you later. Save the family a place in the sky next to you. Love, your great niece Nysheba Bailey##imported-begin## nysheba bailey##imported-end##

To all of Cynthia's family, you have my deepest sympathy. I had the pleasure of working with Cynthia whom was a loving and caring person with a big beautiful heart. Now God has relieved her of all her pain and she is at peace. It was a joy to know her. We laughed, cried, and bonded in friendship and professionally. With deepest sympathy, Roxanne Robinson##imported-begin## Roxanne Robinson##imported-end##
