Glendora I. Pierce

FEB 8, 1916 - JAN 20, 2010

Glendora I. Pierce 93, of Bridgeton passed away on Wednesday morning January 20, 2010 in South Jersey Healthcare Elmer. Although she had been in declining health for the past six years, her death was unexpected.

Born in Fort Mott, she was the daughter of the late Nathaniel and Mary nee Pierce Cuff and the wife of the late Wilden "Woody" Pierce. She had been an area resident for most of her life, and had lived previously for 10 years in New York City. Glendora and her late husband were long time members of the First Church of the Nazarene in Bridgeton. She enjoyed crocheting, sewing and making homemade quilts. Surviving her are her two brothers Nate Cuff of Oklahoma, Morris Cuff of New Brunswick, NJ, three sisters, Hester Ridgway of Fairfield Twp., Emma Seeney and Alta Worley both of Dover, Delaware, and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased besides her husband and parents by two brothers Chester Cuff Sr. and Linwood Cuff and two sisters Serena Carter, and Lucy Pierce.

We are deeply sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. May it comfort you to read about the Bible's resurrection accounts because it provides a real hope for mankind John 11:39-44. The Bible teaches that Jehovah God is eager to raise the dead. The faithful man Job asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" Job was speaking about waiting in the grave until the time came for God to remember him. He said to Jehovah God: "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning."—Job 14:13-15. Just think ! Jehovah God actually yearns to bring the dead back to life. What a beautiful time that will be!##imported-begin##Charles & Mariluz Pierce##imported-end##

I have many fond memories of Aunt Glen and Uncle Woody. Visiting their home and listening to Uncle Woody play his guitar and Aunt Glen saying his was wearing out her floor by tapping his foot to his music. Now in Heaven with Uncle Woody. I know he's playing his guitar for her again. God Bless the FamilyNiece....Donna Mosley##imported-begin##Donna Mosley##imported-end##
