Our hearts go out to you in your time of sorrow. God's Kingdom rule will undo all the damage done to the human family for the past six thousand years Isaiah 65:17. The joys at that time will far outweigh any suffering that people have experienced Isaiah 33:24. Life will not be disturbed by any bad memories of previous suffering Isaiah 14:7, Revelations 21:3,4. What a blessing that will prove to be!##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Charles & Mariluz Pierce##imported-end##

To my cousins/sisters and brother you are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all and I know you are going through. I loved Spanky too. I had not seen her in five years but, I always loved to get together with mom and talk and laugh about us growing up together. Spanky was always doing something to make us laugh. I am using those memories to help me cope with our loss. Trust in God and think of your fond memories of her to help you through this time. God Bless and I love you all.##imported-begin##Mae Frances Ingram Mickey Teal##imported-end##

RIP My Sister, throughout our lives we have been tested and approved worthy of the love, peace and guidance of Jesus. We started out in our young lives losing our mother, all of us had our way of coping with that traumatic experience. We all knew that you never came to term with her death. Most important your father which art in heaven knew your pain and your suffering. He knew that it was a lot for you to bear. I am so glad to know that once you receive the gift of salvation it can never be taken away. God's word says that nothing can pluck us from his hand, not even death.##imported-begin##Brenda Byrd##imported-end##
