Harry Matish

SEP 19, 1949 - FEB 22, 2010

Harry Matish Jr. 60, of Bridgeton passed away Monday morning February 22, 2010 in South Jersey Regional Medical Center, Vineland, where he had been a patient for the past week.

Born in Bridgeton he was the son of the late Harry Sr. and Irene Hider Matish, and the husband of Beatrice Ervingham Matish. Harry was a resident of Cumberland Manor for the past four years and had previously lived in both Bridgeton and Fairton. Harry had worked as a custodian in Fairton School for several years and was also formerly employed with Veale's Yellow Cab, the Bridgeton Evening News, and the former Bridgeton Hospital in Housekeeping, a job he held for twenty years, until his health started to fail him. He was a former member of the Fairton Volunteer Fire Co. #1 and the Bridgeton Rescue Squad. He was also a former member of the First Baptist Church in Bridgeton. He loved fishing, bowling, and was an avid Philadelphia Phillies and Eagles fan. He is survived besides his wife Beatrice, by five daughters Amy Beth Matish of Fairfield Twp., Kimberly Matish of Bridgeton, Crystal Lynn Matish of Laurel Lake, Sue Eyeraman of Laurel Lake, Tammy Penn of Buena, one son Brian Evans of Kodak, Tennessee, one brother John Matish of Fairfield Twp., his sister Irene Matish of Philadelphia, three grandsons and seven granddaughters. Besides his parents he was predeceased by his son Harry Andrew Matish, and his brother John Michael Matish.

We are deeply sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. May it comfort you to read about the Bible's resurrection accounts because it provides a real hope for mankind John 11:39-44. The Bible teaches that Jehovah God is eager to raise the dead. The faithful man Job asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" Job was speaking about waiting in the grave until the time came for God to remember him. He said to Jehovah God: "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning."—Job 14:13-15. Just think! Jehovah God actually yearns to bring the dead back to life. What a beautiful time that will be!##imported-begin##Mr. & Mrs. Charles & Mariluz Pierce##imported-end##
