Juanita F. Jenkins

JAN 24, 1961 - FEB 12, 2011

Juanita F. "Nita" Jenkins of Bridgeton passed away peacefully with her family by her side Saturday evening in South Jersey Healthcare Regional Medical Center, Vineland, where she had been a patient for the past two weeks. She had been in declining health for about the past eight months.

Born in Naples, Florida, she was the daughter of Alberta Brown Frazier and the late Freddy Newsome, and the wife of Anthony Jenkins Sr.. She had been an area resident for most of her life. Nita as she was called by her family and friends was employed with Durand Glass in Millville, for the past eleven years. She was an active member as a Daughter of the Elks Home, Henrietta Wood Temple Lodge in Brotmanville. She loved to settle down reading a good book, and drink her Coca Cola. She also loved working in her yard and spending time with her family and friends. Besides her mother Alberta Brown Frazier, and husband Anthony, she is survived by her three children Adarias Frazier, Kareema Frazier, and Anthony Jenkins Jr., all of Bridgeton, her two sisters Aurea "ReRe" Petgrave, of Odenton Maryland, Yvonne Holloway of Bridgeton, and her brother Bryant "Bo" Frazier of Grasonville, Maryland, her seven grandchildren, various other relatives and many friends.
