My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. When we feel loaded down, overwhelmed or overcome with sadness we do well to follow Bible examples and speak openly to the one whom the Bible calls at Psalm 65:2 "O Hearer of prayer, even to you people of all flesh will come". If we do so in faith we too may find that our sadness is replaced by "the peace of God that excels all thought" as stated at Philippians 4:7. Almighty God can be our rock.##imported-begin##P Allen##imported-end##

Dear Father, Thank you for the life of Ari. She has been a blessing to all who knew her. She brought laughter, warmth, and comfort to many. Her smile was dynamic. In the moments when her mother, father and others showed despair Ari provided a noble message of hope and promise, in her unflinching conviction that her life here may be limited but is by no means final. Grant comfort, peace and strength to those who loved her. Embrace us with Your eternal love through everything we do. Thank you for the love we would never have known, but for Ari's brief days with us. We rejoice in her salvation. May our Angel Ari be surrounded by the angels of heaven and sing with great joy until we meet her again. Lord we thank You for Your everlasting care. In the name of Jesus. Amen. To the Blount Family...Ari was the girl. She used to call me "Miss Bicky" because she thought I was Vicky Smith. Mom and I will miss her tremendously. She always had an infectious smile and laugh and yes, that mac and cheese thing was awesome! There will always be a place open on the Youth Choir at church...Ari's place.. She is resting well with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. Arianna was Ivana's very 1st friend as a baby. They met at church when Ivana was a baby. Ivana loved Arianna from the time she was able to walk and she would recognize her and reach for Ari. Arianna was always so sweet! She wanted to help me with her as they both grew up. Arianna would sometimes sit with us at church and she always shared her snacks with Ivana. Ivana and I will miss you baby! You're resting in Jesus' arms now. We love you!##imported-begin##Renae Thompson##imported-end##

To the parents and grandparents of Ari, God blessed you with a beautiful daughter and granddaughter. Arie was pretty, smart, and could carry on a great conversation, but more importantly she love the Lord, her family and church family. After Ari's surgery she came to church knowing she would tire and not feel well however she pressed her way. Ari was a trooper! I was blessed to have known her. Love ya Arie!! My prayers go out to my Arianna's immediate family, as well as her church family. Arianna was also an active member of the Union Baptist Temple Church in Bridgeton. There she was a member of the Youth Choir and enjoyed attending Sunday School and Children's Church regularly. She was well known and loved by all at Union. Most importantly she was loved by God, who saw fit to call her home. All at Union will miss her terribly, but know that to be absent from the body is to be present with God.##imported-begin##Lois##imported-end##

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. We thank God for allowing Arianna to be a part of our family. Children are a gift from God and He gives them to us so that He can be glorified. Arianna Ari was a faithful member of Union Baptist Temple, where she has been attending since her birth. She was christened by her Pastor, Albert Morgan, at an early age. At UBT she attended Sunday School and sang on the Youth Mass Choir; until she became ill in the summer of 2011. At one point she joined the Mind of Christ Ministry; but, once she realized that she didn't have any rhythm, she quit smile. Ari had a sweet spirit and she was known in the Children's Nursery as the macaroni and cheese girl; because she ate it every Sunday. Ari had so many friends at the church, that you would not be able to count them all. But, you cannot mention the word friends without mentioning two special friends, Ivanna Thompson, whom she led around the church and Shantel Santiago, whom she bossed around. Ari was known for her intelligence and received numerous certificates for making the honor roll and several times she was on the Pastor's list, because she had straight A's. She was an avid reader and she loved to go to Barnes and Nobles with her Great Aunt Lee and her cousins, ShiAnn, Shania and Shantel, know to her as 'the girls.' Arianna was one of those 'unforgettable' children whom you couldn't help but love. She was most known for her smile and positive attitude. She had a profound love for her Pastor, which she called 'The Big Man.' Her favorite scripture was Psalms 1. Ari will be missed; but, never forgotten. She touched so many people's lives and we thank God for allowing us to be touched by her. We would like to thank everyone for their prayers, phone calls, food, and any other acts of kindness done in memory of Ari. God Bless you.
