Born in Chester Pennsylvania October 26, 1930, he was the son of the late George E. Sr. and Eunice R. (nee Backenstose) Cheety. George had been a resident of Vineland most of his life and had also previously lived in Kansas and St. Louis.

He was an accomplished artist and was known as one of Vineland's Masters. George had also worked previously at T&F Camera and the Snapshot. He had a passion and love of Airplanes and the dynamics of how they were engineered. George had a drivers license; however hardly ever drove, and could be seen walking everywhere. When his health was well, he attended the Devine Mercy Parish in Vineland.
