When Michelle and I served our mission in Bridgeton, we were blessed to visit and know Kermit and Andrea. The spirit in the Pierce home was always inviting and friendly. Kermit has a gentle and kind soul. Despite his significant health trials, I never heard him complain and he seemed grateful for the blessings God had allowed him in this life. Credit to Andrea for her constant care of Kermit during these later years as Kermit required more and more medical attention. Our love and support to Kermit's family. God bless you all with peace and understanding.

My love and support goes out to you. I am so sorry for your lost. God has allow me to be a "POST" for you to lean on, so do not try to carry the load yourself. I have always loved you both, but now the love for two has been narrowed to one.
