It's true. She had a challenging life, but always met those challenges with grace. Some people take out their problems on others, but she always spread love and happiness.

When I was kid, my cousin Tony and I looked a lot alike! So much so that when we were running around the house, Aunt Marie kept yelling to me to stop that running, every time I went by. But she was calling me Tony and I wasn't Tony, so I didn't stop! Love you and miss you, Aunt Marie! -Jimmy Mosley
