Perry "Fuddy" Loatman

JUL 4, 1952 - MAY 11, 2021

Perry "Fuddy" Loatman, 68 of Bridgeton, died suddenly and unexpectedly on Tuesday evening May 11, 2021 in Cooper Medical Center, Camden. Born July 4, 1952 in Bridgeton, he was the son of Sigrid Cuff Loatman and the late Leon Loatman Sr.

Fuddy was a musician his whole life, beginning with LCRB and playing with many fellow musicians and friends. He fulfilled his greatest dream of publishing a CD with his favorite original songs and played in several local restaurants and taverns. He was also a fisherman and enjoyed fishing from his boat and "Fighting the Enemy" in video games. Fuddy proudly served his country as a firefighter in the US Air Force. He was a proud member of the Nanticoke Lenape Indian Tribe of Bridgeton, and loved attending the Tribe's Pow Wow held every June. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle and trips to the beach.

Left to cherish his memory are his former wife Eddy and his children; Nikki Harvey (Joe) of Elmer, and Damien Loatman (Tina) of Egg Harbor Township, Pop Pop is also survived by his four grandchildren; Jaxson, Elisabeth, and Owen Harvey of Elmer, and Lilyana Loatman of Egg Harbor Township, his mother Sigrid, and siblings: Bruce Loatman of Arizona, Leon Loatman (Norma) of Pittsgrove Township, and Keith Loatman (Bernice) of Texas, many cousins and friends. Besides his father Leon, Fuddy was predeceased by a brother Timothy Loatman. A memorial service will be held on Saturday May 29, 2021 at 2:00 pm at Sray-Webster Funeral Home. I think the memory that has stuck with me over the years is. Eddy had this Volkswagen and we were all out riding. It was Eddy, Fuddy, myself, my sister Wanda and her boyfriend at the time. Well we came up to the railroad tracks by Walmart at Carlls Corner, but it hasn't been built yet. Well Eddy was approaching the tracks when out of the clear blue this big old train showed up and she hit the brakes. Well the train grabbed the bumper pulled us sideways into the train and thank God we bounced off of it without any of us getting injured, other than all of us really shook up. Never forgot that, but also had alot of greT times. You will be truly missed my friend. Thank for the memories.

When we first met Fuddy, he invited us out to see him at a near by venue. After his first set, he came and talked with us. There was a nice crowd, they were up dancing. He was finishing up his set when we decided to head home. He saw us leaving and just stopped playing to say goodbye as the dance floor was full. We thought it was great, the dancers not so much. That was the start of a great friendship, he will always be our third wheel.

Fuddy had a Heart of Gold. He was a great friend and often brought his guitar and we would just hang out and sing and laugh and just enjoy life. I am shocked and saddened by the news of his passing. We just made plans a few weeks ago. Keep on singing those Blues and Rocking that guitar. You will be truly missed my friend ❤️😔😔
