Timothy Canty lit a candle in honor of Andrea.

Andrea, (Buddah) little sis, you always brought laughter to our family and were a light of positivity and a prime example of selflessness. You left us way too soon. We will miss you in body, but your soul will always be in our hearts. We love you. Your brother, Tim.

Timothy, I was deeply saddened by the news of Andrea's passing. For the past couple of years we had reconnected on Facebook shortly after her husband passed away. She updated me on the status of her family and I was happy to hear from her. You may recall I trained in martial arts with your dad at your childhood home in Irvington, NJ. Buddha, as your family lovely called her, was probably 9 or 10 and would occasionally make her way to the dojo. In fact back then you were even training. Anyway, your dad was very instrumental in furthering my development as a martial artist as well as a man and I remember your family fondly. God bless you and I will keep you and your dad in my prayers. With sympathy, Rodney Brown
