Marian Wynder posted:

I first met Earl while attending Nursing School in Jersey City with my classmate Joyce Bailey. They married and enjoyed the Military career with their 3 children. They settled back in New Jersey where my children And their children became known to each other and this caused a union between Serena Randolph And my son Gary. Both Earl and my husband Nelson enjoyed a career in the Af & Army. Although we are all saddened by their passing, our families also have the assurance that God's goodness thur the years has secured a wonderful bond with the Bailey, Randolph, Wynder family. Lastly, God gave us a bundle if joy just as Earl was making his transition. His Granddaughter Sierra birthed his great grand Sébastien who was due on his Birthday.This is bringing much joy to Serena& Gary as this is their first grandchild.Sierra and husband both are in Hawaii & Grandparents are in Okinawa, Japan. Both are enjoying their visit to help with new baby Sébastien. Neither will be able to attend the homecoming service but send their prayers and thankfulness to families & friends who can. Lord willing and health permitting, I plan to support with my attendance.Lovingly submitted, Marian Wynder Gary's mom & Serena 's .mother-law, Grandmom & Great to Sierra, Rome& little Sébastien. .
