“ Donna Frazier Durham lit a candle in memory of Carl E. "Cooty" Pierce

“ He was the best father in law any daughter in law could ever ask for. The most caring and unselfish man I have ever met in my life. He was a 2nd dad to me. Always helped us fixing stuff in our house and always helping me with any vehicle I've had. I will forever miss his contagious laugh and him always telling me "shut the hell up Pam, you talk too damn much" and the joy he always got for calling me "PP". All the trips to Lancaster and Homegoods will be too quiet without you. And no vacation will ever be the same without you with us. I wish we had more time with you, but you know this, we will always take care of each other and we love you and appreciate everything you've ever done for us. The angels got a real good one.

“ This man. My best friend's father. I called him Dad. He had the most booming voice in a room. He was always picking an argument with me and usually won because he was so quick-witted with his comebacks. Even tho he always greeted me with something like "Why on earth are you at my house again!?!", he never kicked me out when I was around until late at night. He used to make me laugh. And he was always perched in his comfy armchair with his tiny dog in his lap. That's how I'll remember him. Miss you already Dad. Your family is in the best hands. And I hope you had another version of your truck up there waiting to be worked on

“ To Natalie, Amanda and Ryan,
May the many fond memories of you husband and father give you strength and courage to carry on. I really never met "Cooty" but, reading all these heartfelt postings, makes me wish I had. With love and prayers, Tammy Schoeler

“ God knows your pain Natalie, Ryan and Amanda, God knows your pain, your carl is is gone but is soul remains. You cannot see him but his memories there. God gave it to you so don't despair. Carl's time on earth was through he completed the task he was born to do. He did it so well that God took him home, to walk the streets were angels room. I know he was special and you miss him so but when your time comes you'll get to go. You'll see Carl and Jesus too, so family live this life God gave to you. Your heart will heal and one day you'll see your carl and dad in heaven and eternity. Much Love Cousin Dottie
