“ Sandra White..... my brother never owned any rental units. He lived in a two room house on Gould Ave in Gouldtown. He was the most kin hearted man ever. You must have him confused with somebody else. I am his brother Peter Lloyd.

“ At the time my three kids & I met Harry in Nov '96 we took him at face value to be an upstanding man; however, years later (when we ended our lease) is when we witnessed the true character of Mr. Pierce. Although we took excellent care of our property & received all chk marks upon the move-out inspection, Harry pocketed our security deposit and never returned our phone calls or replied to our letters. Consequently, as a single-parent moving out-of-state the timing of Harry's cruelty precipitated tremendous hardship upon my family; in any event, it is our prayer that Mr. Pierce changed his ways before he passed!

“ Harry was a gentle and kind man. He was my neighbor all my life. I even called him uncle harry out of respect. He used to always be working in his garden. I remember Ruth and harry shucking beans in the summer. He will be missed. I'm sorry I wasn't at the viewing and service as I didn't know of his passing until now. Love you uncle harry! See you on the other side. Charles Thompson son of late Jeremiah Thompson.
